

ST PATRICK'S PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Role:

St Patrick's Parish Pastoral Council is a representative group of parishioners whose role is to advise and support the Parish Priest and assistant clergy in the administration of St Patrick's Parish, promoting the Good News in a spirit of truth, love and justice.

The Councillors:

Monsignor W. Fulton
Parish Priest

Father Brendan Lee
Assistant Priest

Danny Salmon
(Chairman)

Brian Phegan
(Vice Chairman)

Margaret McDonald
(Secretary)

Marie Cameron
(St Patrick's School)

Sister Clements

Teresa Wronka

Darren Cavanagh

Margaret A. McDonald

Frank Thistleton

Helen Sandral

Julie Rigby

Carmel Garratt

Greg Hill

Chris Ryan

Jonathan Caringal

Responsibilities:

- To promote and maintain the spiritual, liturgical, social and pastoral wellbeing of the Parish
- To provide a forum for suggestions and discussions of matters concerning the Parish
- To provide a continuous link between parishioners and the priests, being mindful that the parish community consists of the clergy and all members of the parish family working together in harmonious co-operation
- To harness the talents of parishioners in order to enhance the community spirit of the parish and share the burden of leadership

Meetings:

The St Patrick's Parish Pastoral Council meets on the second Thursday of every month.