

We Welcome our Visitor from Ghana

Fr Raphael Boansi

from Christ the King parish Accra

Fr Raphael will be in the parish a week before the Diocesan pilgrims leave for Sydney. In Sydney he will join pilgrims from their own country.

Fr Raphael Donkor Boansi is the eldest in his family of five, a brother just finished uni and two brothers and one sister still at school. His father is a retired army officer and his mother a trader.

Fr Raphael, has a BA in Sociology and Religions and a diploma in education.

He was ordained in August 2006 was appointed assistant priest at Christ the King parish and is in charge of youth activities.

He is hoping to study a theological discipline in the future.

St Patrick's parish is very privileged to have the opportunity to host Fr Raphael for World Youth Day and to have him spend some time in our parish.
